

Fall 2011 Inter-club Print Competition

Reported by Arthur S. Vaughan, MNEC
NECCC Print Chairman

The fall 2011 inter-club print competition was held on Oct. 31 at the Greater Lynn Photographic Association in Lynn, MA. Skip Hoyt, MNEC served as the event organizer and coordinator. The judges for this competition were: Jacob Mosser III, EPSA, FPSA, HonNEC, (Greater Lynn Photographic Association), Sarah Musumeci, MNEC, (Merrimack Valley Camera Club), and Paul Smith, MNEC, (Gateway Camera Club).

Having Greater Lynn serve as host club for this fall competition was a fortunate choice. Much of New England was still without power after the snowstorm of the evening of Oct. 29. Lynn's hall had power and the competition was well attended. Many in the crowd went home to cold, dark houses. The competition went off very smoothly with a team of seven people sharing the work. Serving on the competition committee in various roles were... Karen Choi, Linda Coviello, Brenda Driscoll, Garrey Faller, Dana Hoffman, MNEC, Skip Hoyt, MNEC, and Bart Navarro. Many thanks go to the competition crew, the judges, and the Greater Lynn Photographic Association for all the time and effort spent in putting on this event.

A total of 164 prints were submitted: 50-class A, 26-class B, and 88-Color. Participating were 22 clubs, 13 in class A, 7 in class B, and 22 in Color. A total of 31 prints received awards... 10 class A, 6 class B and 15 in Color. There were multiple tie scores in the three divisions. A somewhat lighter than usual level of participation in B&W resulted in there being no Honorable Mentions for those categories. Clubs that submitted less than the usual allotment of four color and four B&W, or that missed the fall competition entirely, are encouraged to submit make-up prints along with their prints for the winter competition, to be hosted by the Springfield Photographic Society on Wednesday, January 25, 2012.
